The Honourable Don Morgan, Q.C.,

Dear Sir:

It is my pleasure to provide you with the Annual Report of the Saskatchewan Labour Relations Board. It covers the period commencing April 1, 2020 and ending March 31, 2021.

Susan C. Amrud, Q.C.
Chairperson of Labour Relations Board

Labour Relations Board

The Labour Relations Board (Board) was created in 1944 with passage of The Trade Union Act. Although this legislation was often amended, and, in 2014, replaced by The Saskatchewan Employment Act (Act), the basic concept of the Board has not changed. The Board is an independent, quasi-judicial tribunal charged with the responsibility of adjudicating disputes that arise under the Act. It does this principally through public hearings and written decisions. The Board’s decisions are final and binding on the parties. There is no appeal from decisions pursuant to Part VI, and review by the courts is strictly limited.

The Act provides for a Board composed of a chairperson and up to two vice-chairpersons, and an unspecified number of other members. All members of the Board, including the chairperson and vice-chairperson(s), are appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council. The chairperson and vice-chairperson(s) are full-time members of the Board. The remaining members are appointed and paid on a per diem basis when their services are required.

The Board is a representational one. This means that all members of the Board, with the exception of the chairperson and vice-chairperson(s), are representatives of organized employees or employers. The chairperson and vice-chairperson(s) are neutral and are lawyers. The Board reports to the Minister of Labour Relations and Workplace Safety for Saskatchewan. The minister is obligated by the Act to provide the Board with any technical, clerical and administrative assistance that the Board reasonably requires. The Board operates independently from the government, its ministries and agencies.

The Board’s offices and staff are located at 1600-1920 Broad Street, Regina. The Board also maintains a hearing room in Saskatoon. The staff of the Board is composed of the Board registrar, secretary to the chairperson, Board officer and an administrative support position. The chairperson is the executive officer of the Board. An organizational chart of the Board is contained in Appendix A.

The composition of the Board as of March 31, 2021 is:

Saskatchewan Labour Relations Board COVID-19 Response Highlights

Overview

The COVID-19 pandemic has challenged government operations during the 2020-21 fiscal year. The expected operations of programs and services may have significantly changed as the Government of Saskatchewan worked quickly to support citizens and businesses. Annual reports for the 2020-21 fiscal year provide information on the impacts of COVID-19 and recognize the work of the Government of Saskatchewan in responding to the pandemic.

Organization COVID-19 Response Highlights

- The Board adjourned all in-person hearings and began development of a COVID-19 policy and plan to hear matters without risk to parties, stakeholders or staff on the issuance of the first public health orders regarding the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Case management conferences were conducted by video conference with parties as early as March 2020 to manage the needs and expectations of stakeholders and minimize the impact of the pandemic on matters that required a hearing.
- In the COVID-19 policy, the Board developed a procedure for hearings to be conducted by video conference and began conducting hearings by video conference in June 2020.
- Hearings conducted by video conference continued to be the default at the end of the 2020-21 fiscal year and have been widely accepted by the labour relations community.
- Parties were permitted to file requests for hearings to be conducted in-person to insure that all stakeholders would continue to have access to justice at the Board, regardless of their level of technological access.
- Strict safety protocols were set in place during any in-person hearings to reduce the possible infectious vectors to an absolute minimum.
- Under the COVID-19 policy, the Board has remained available for inquiry by phone, email, or mail but public access to the Board offices has remained restricted with the exception of rare in-person hearings.
- At the onset of the pandemic, the Board reduced the presence of staff in the Board offices and transitioned staff to a work-from-home arrangement with rotational attendance in the Board offices. This arrangement has continued through the end of the fiscal year.
- Despite the pandemic, the Board managed to draft updated regulations and conduct consultations with stakeholders, concluding with the new regulations coming into force on April 1, 2021.
