The Honourable Don Morgan, Q.C.,
Minister of Labour Relations and Workplace Safety

Dear Minister:

It is my pleasure to provide you with the Annual Report of the Saskatchewan Labour Relations Board. It covers the period commencing April 1, 2021 and ending March 31, 2022.

Susan C. Amrud, Q.C.
Chairperson of Labour Relations Board

Labour Relations Board

The Labour Relations Board was created in 1944 with passage of The Trade Union Act. Although this Act was often amended, and, in 2014, replaced by The Saskatchewan Employment Act (Act), the basic concept of the Board has not changed. The Board is an independent, quasi-judicial tribunal charged with the responsibility of adjudicating disputes that arise under the Act. It does this principally through public hearings and written decisions. The Board's decisions are final and binding on the parties. There is no appeal from decisions pursuant to Part VI, and review by the courts is strictly limited.

The Act provides for a Board composed of a chairperson and up to two vice-chairpersons, and an unspecified number of other members. All members of the Board, including the chairperson and vice-chairperson(s), are appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council. The chairperson and vice-chairperson(s) are full-time members of the Board. The remaining members are appointed and paid on a per diem basis when their services are required.

The Board is a representational one. This means that all members of the Board, with the exception of the chairperson and vice-chairperson(s), are representatives of organized employees or employers. The chairperson and vice-chairperson(s) are neutral and are lawyers. The Board reports to the Minister of Labour Relations and Workplace Safety for Saskatchewan. The minister is obligated by the Act to provide the Board with any technical, clerical and administrative assistance that the Board reasonably requires. The Board operates independently from the government, its ministries and agencies.

The Board's offices and staff are located at 1600-1920 Broad Street, Regina. The Board also maintains a hearing room in Saskatoon. The staff of the Board is composed of the Board registrar, secretary to the chairperson, Board officer and an administrative support position. The chairperson is the executive officer of the Board. An organizational chart of the Board is contained in Appendix A: Saskatchewan Labour Relations Board Organizational Chart.
